

SIJOU ACADEMY, MUSHALPUR

7th Bwisagu/Bohag Bihu Celebration-2026

(Date: 11th April, 2026)

The 7th Bwisagu/Bohag Bihu Celebration was conducted with remarkable enthusiasm and cultural grandeur at Sijou Academy, Mushalpur, on 11th April 2026. The event was meticulously organized to commemorate the traditional festival of Bwisagu/Bohag Bihu, symbolizing renewal, prosperity, and the onset of a new agricultural cycle, while simultaneously fostering cultural awareness and intellectual engagement among the students.

The proceedings commenced punctually at 8:30 AM with the formal reporting of participants at the designated venue. The inaugural segment began with a welcome address delivered by the esteemed Principal, Dr. D. Basumatary, who eloquently underscored the significance of preserving indigenous traditions and integrating cultural values within the educational framework.

Subsequently, the formal inauguration of the program took place at 8:35 AM, graced by the distinguished Chief Guest, Dr. Sunjit Bosumatary, Principal of Sijou College, Mushalpur. In his keynote address, he emphasized the importance of holistic education, wherein academic excellence is complemented by cultural enrichment and moral development.

The academic segment of the celebration was marked by a Quiz Competition. The event was administered with precision and intellectual rigor under the guidance of Quiz Masters. The competition witnessed active participation and encouraged critical thinking and knowledge enhancement among the students.

Following this, the cultural segment commenced with the Bwisagu/Bohag Bihu Dance Competition for both Parents/Guardians & Students. This segment provided a vibrant platform for students to showcase their artistic talents through traditional dance performances characterized by rhythmic grace, colorful attire, and expressive presentation. The performances were impartially evaluated by a panel of judges.

The program progressed to its concluding phase with the Prize and Certificate Distribution Ceremony. During this segment, deserving participants were formally recognized and honored for their outstanding performances in both academic and cultural events.

The event concluded at 1:30 PM with a formal vote of thanks delivered by the Vice-Principal, Shiva Nandan Kumar, who expressed sincere appreciation to the organizing committee, respected guests, participants, and all contributors for their invaluable efforts in ensuring the success of the celebration.

In conclusion, the event was a harmonious amalgamation of intellectual pursuit and cultural expression. It successfully reinforced the importance of traditional heritage while promoting unity, discipline, and a spirit of collective participation among the students.
